

FREE

EARTHFILM FESTIVAL
APRIL 18TH

CENTER FOR THE ARTS 12-8PM
FOR MORE INFORMATION: 733-7016

EARTH FILM FESTIVAL

APRIL 18TH

FREE at the Center for the Arts. Sunday 12-8 pm
Kicking off Earth Week with an inspiring day of films, speakers, performances, food and friends!

Throughout the afternoon in the Lobby:

Recycled Elk installation on exhibit • local food and beverages at concessions • Teton Mudpots soup bowls for sale • Art Association recycled art projects for kids • Info tables with local organizations

12-2 pm in the Theater—Family Bloc

Plas Bottley Hikes Again (2 min)
The Story of Bottled Water (8 min)
JHME After School Percussion Ensemble performance (10 min)
Flip Flotsam (26 min)
One Less Bottle (5 min) by Jen Tennican for RRR Jackson Hole
Dancers Workshop performance (10 min)
Once Upon a Tide (10 min)

2-4 pm in the Theater

Bag IT (72 min) with D.P. Leigh Reagan
One Less Bottle (5 min) by Jen Tennican for RRR Jackson Hole, followed by Q&A

4-6 pm in the Theater

Too Tyred Tour with Tim Young (30 min)
Generations (20 min) with TGR
Yellowstone Grizzlies Still Threatened? (4 min) by Melinda Binks & Rebecca Huntington
Killer Beetle shorts (20 min) with David Gonzales

6-7 pm in the Theater

Ahead of the Curve (14 min)
Local Sustainability Issues moderated by Sara Flitner with Mayor Mark Barron, Mayor Scott Fitzgerald, Jim Webb, Ben Ellis and Andy Tyson

7-8 pm Reception sponsored by Jackson Whole Grocer

Special thanks to our Event Sponsors:

Prugh Real Estate, Wells Fargo Bank, Dan Visosky, Wyoming Travel and Tourism, Grand Targhee Resort, Jackson Hole Conservation Alliance, High Country Linen Service, One Percent for the Tetons, Mark Barron and Ruth Ann Petroff, Grace Home Design

The recycled elk sculpture installation was funded in part by a micro-Grant from the Community foundation of Jackson hole and created by 350+ students: Jackson High School Level 1 & 2 English Language Learners and 3-Dimensional Art Classes, Summit High School Art Class, Jackson Middle School Eighth Grade Digital Media Art Class, Teton Mentor Project, Red Top Meadows students and Jackson Elementary Second Grade Classes

JACKSON HOLE
WILDLIFE
FILM FESTIVAL

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

