

Jackson Hole Conservation Alliance
(307) 733-9417 • www.jhalliance.org

March 19, 2010

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SOUGHT

The Jackson Hole Conservation Alliance, a non-profit organization at the gateway to Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks, seeks a collaborative, dynamic and passionate Executive Director to lead the organization and a staff of eight into its 4th decade of partnering for a wild and beautiful valley.

This Executive Director will be a dedicated advocate for maintaining harmony between human activities and the area's irreplaceable wildlife, scenic and other natural resources, have familiarity with Western conservation issues and have demonstrable expertise in fundraising.

Responsibilities include: Guiding staff in evaluating and advocating public policy issues, maintaining strong member, community and government agency relations, working closely with the volunteer Board, and ensuring continued organizational success in our mission.

Salary and benefits DOE/ competitive with similar-sized organizations. Send cover letter and resume to: Exdir@jhalliance.org or P.O. Box 2728, Jackson, Wyoming 83001

Deadline: Monday, May 17, 2010. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE